1. REOPENING PROCESS

SUMMARY

The vast majority of cinemas across Europe were officially closed by Government order – unless specified otherwise in the table below – from mid-March, with the exception of Italy (with almost 50% closed from 23 February), Russia (all closed from 31 March), Sweden (only partly closed) and Belarus (never closed). Overall, less than 2% of the 42,000+ screens in Europe remained open from then until May, when cinemas started reopening. Most European markets reopened their cinemas between early May and early July, with a few territories only reopening in September 2020. New closures were announced in October 2020 following spikes in local cases, some of which were localised to specific cities or regions. Most European cinemas were again forced to close their doors in the following weeks, with potential reopening dates set for February or March 2021.

Territories where the majority - if not all - cinemas are currently closed are highlighted in the table below.

COUNTRY	STATUS AND CLOSURE DATES	TIMELINE
ALBANIA	OPEN 23 March to 23 June 2020	Flower shops and clothing stores were the first businesses allowed to reopen from 27 April, with most businesses following on 1 June. Cinemas were allowed to reopen on 23 June but only effectively reopened in late October, due to the lack of content. Albania introduced a curfew from November 11, with all citizens required to stay at home from 10PM to 6AM. This curfew was extended indefinitely from January 2021.
AUSTRIA	CLOSED 16 March to 29 May 2020 3 Nov. 2020 to 19 May 2021	The gradual reopening process started with small shops on 14 April, larger stores on 1 May and restaurants on 15 May. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 29 May - originally planned for 1 July, the reopening date was brought forward. Most cinemas reopened by mid-June, with some chains waiting until early July. Austria entered a second lockdown from 3 November. Restaurants were also required to close but the retail and services sector could remain open. A curfew from 8PM was introduced. These measures were later extended and it was announced in mid-January that the lockdown would be extended to 7 February at least. Restrictions were eased from that date, with smaller shops allowed to reopen. But hotels, restaurants or cinemas remain shut – with no reopening timeline available. Contact services – such as hairdressers – allowed to reopen but subject to strict hygiene measures, such as FFP2 masks, maximum numbers of people per square metre, recording of contact details and the requirement for customers to show a negative coronavirus test which is less than 48 hours old. Austria postponed the reopening of cafe, restaurant and bar terraces planned for 27 March. The government is preparing for regions to adapt restrictions locally. One federal State,

		Vorarlberg, has in late March allowed cultural institutions to reopen under strict regulations. This test starts from 27 March and includes cinemas. On 16 April, the Austrian Chancellor announced that lockdown measures in the areas of culture, sport, gastronomy and tourism would be relaxed from mid-May. He did not provide a specific timeline – which is expected to be announced in late April. The reopening plan will include a “green passport”, an app with a QR code which can be scanned to indicate if someone is recovered from, vaccinated against or has recently tested negative for the coronavirus. Cinemas are expected to be allowed to reopen from 19 May. Current restrictions would include a 10PM curfew, a ban on F&B sales, a 50% capacity limit and mandatory mask wearing at all times.
BELGIUM	CLOSED 14 March to 1 July 2020 <hr/> 29 Oct. 2020 to June 2021	Shops selling gardening and building materials were the first allowed to reopen from 18 April. Most shops reopened on 11 May and bars and restaurants from 8 June. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 1 July. Social gatherings were restricted to groups of 4 people maximum starting from 9 October. From 19 October, bars and restaurants were required to close, while F&B sales in cinema were banned. From 24 October, curfews were introduced across the country, as early as 10PM in some regions. The region of Brussels decided to close all cultural places, including cinemas, from 26 October. The Flemish Government took the same decision on 28 October, which was then extended to the whole country from 29 October. It was announced in mid-January that current restrictions would be extended until at least 1 March. The Belgian Government presented a reopening timeline on 5 March which would allow for the reopening of cinemas in May, depending on the evolution of the pandemic and the respect of sector-specific guidelines. It was announced that several businesses, including one major cinema located in Brussels, would take part in various tests to facilitate the reopening process in the coming weeks. On 24 March, it was announced that a new lockdown would be introduced for at least three weeks from 27 March, with most shops required to close and schools closing a week earlier than planned for the Easter break. Outdoor gatherings were reduced from 10 to 4 people. On 31 March, a Brussels court ruled that Belgium’s current coronavirus measures do not have a sufficient legal basis, and gave the State 30 days to provide that basis. The ruling does not comment on the content of the measures and whether or not they are effective. Interior Minister announced it would appeal against the verdict – but the

		ruling is expected to hold. The Government was already in the process of drafting a “pandemic law” and is hopeful to provide the necessary legal basis by the end of April 2021. It was announced on 14 April that various restrictions would be eased from 26 April, including the reopening of non-essential shops. Bar and restaurants terraces will be allowed to reopen from 8 May. Cinemas are currently not expected to reopen before June according to the officially presented timeline. The cultural sector, supported by the ministers of Culture, have asked the Government to allow for a reopening of cultural venues from 8 May with an attendance limit of 200 outside and 100 inside. This proposal will be reviewed on 23 April.
BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA	OPEN 13 March to 14 May 2020 LOCAL CLOSURES 13 March 2021 to TBA 2021 (Sarajevo) 21 March to TBA 2021 (Republika Srpska)	Bosnian entities applied different restrictions. Republika Srpska reopened most businesses from 11 May. Federal authorities announced that cinemas and cultural institutions could reopen from 14 May. Some sites started reopening from the week of 18 May, while most followed suit in June. Sarajevo will be partially shut down from 13 March - only food shops, pharmacies and gas stations will stay open. Cinemas in Republika Srpska were required to close from 21 March until further notice. Cinemas remain open in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, with a curfew from 9PM still effective.
BULGARIA	OPEN 13 March to 11 May 2020 30 Nov. 2020 to 31 Jan. 2021 22 March to 1 April 2021	Cinemas were allowed to reopen immediately from 11 May, with most effectively reopening from mid-June. A 11.30PM curfew was introduced from 12 November for all businesses. Cinemas were ordered to shut on 30 November. Most businesses were slowly allowed to reopen from late January, including cinemas from 31 January. One of the major Bulgarian cinema chains announced it would reopen from 5 February. It was announced on 18 March that Bulgaria would close schools, restaurants and shopping malls for 10 days from March 22. Multiplexes in Bulgaria are mostly located in malls. It was later confirmed that cinemas across the country would be required to close from 22 to 31 March. On 30 March, the Bulgarian Minister of Health confirmed that restrictions would be eased from 1 April. From that date, cinemas and other venues will be allowed to reopen with a 30% occupancy limit. Restaurants and bars will be allowed to re-open their outdoor area, nightclubs will remain closed and so will shopping malls and large stores. At the same time, the 28 districts in Bulgaria were identified as COVID-19 “red zones” for the second consecutive week. Cinemas were effectively allowed to reopen from 1 April, between 6AM and 11PM. Those located in malls were also allowed to reopen but were banned from selling F&B (as indoor restaurants remained closed).

CROATIA	OPEN 17 March to 20 August 2020	Cultural institutions and the retail sector reopened from 27 April. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 18 May, while those located in shopping malls had to wait until 15 June. All exhibitors decided to reopen from 20 August. Measures limiting gatherings to 100 participants were introduced on 10 July. On 14 October, gatherings of more than 50 people were banned. From 26 October, a 10PM curfew was introduced. Public gatherings were limited to 25 people in December. Bars, restaurants, gyms and other facilities have been closed since November, and the Croatian Government decided to extend these measures to at least 1 March. Cinemas have remained open.
CYPRUS	CLOSED 16 March to 17 Sept. 2020 11 Dec. 2020 to TBA 2021	Retail businesses were the first allowed to reopen from 4 May. Hairdressers and restaurants reopened from 21 May. Cinemas were only allowed to reopen from 17 September. The Government announced a curfew on 4 November, from 11PM to 5AM. From 11 December, gatherings were limited to 2 people outside home, effectively closing cinemas. The curfew was reinforced, starting at 9PM. The government announced in late January the easing of several restrictions and cinemas were allowed to reopen from 8 February. The main local cinema chain has decided not to reopen because of the 9PM curfew and occupancy limit (50 per venue). A new lockdown was introduced on 23 April, to be effective from 26 April until 9 May. Moreover, a 9PM to 5AM curfew was imposed along with a ban on gatherings.
CZECH REPUBLIC	CLOSED 12 March to 11 May 2020 12 Oct. 2020 to TBA 2021	The Czech Government twice decided to speed up its reopening process, as cinemas were allowed to reopen from 11 May. Following a spike in local cases, the Czech Government announced the closure of cinemas from 12 October. A curfew was also introduced from 8PM, then 9PM from 27 December. Most businesses were also required to close on Sundays. Gatherings were limited to 2 people. Restrictions were slightly eased around Christmas, but were all brought back in January 2021. Local operators do not expect to reopen before April 2021. The country is currently under Tier 5 safety level, with cinemas allowed to reopen in Tier 3 with 25% capacity and a ban on F&B sales. The Czech Government announced it would reopen all retail shops from 22 February, but this decision was dropped following a rise in local infections. It was announced on 26 February that the Government was laying out plans to “radically” tighten lockdown measures – a nation-wide lockdown was introduced a few days later. The Czech Republic’s state of emergency and the associated curfew and ban for people to

		move outside their home districts ended on 12 April, alongside a partial reopening of schools, libraries, zoos and some stores. Czech students have faced the longest school closures in the European Union. It was later confirmed that shops, markets and some services would reopen from 3 May. This reopening stage was postponed by a week to 10 May. Bars and restaurant terraces, as well as hotels, will be allowed to reopen with up to 25% capacity from 17 May.
DENMARK	CLOSED 12 March to 21 May 2020 <hr/> 16 Dec. 2020 to 6 May 2021 LOCAL CLOSURES 6 November to 3 Dec. 2020 (North Jutland)	Danish cinema operators decided to close from 12 March 2020, before being forced to do so by the Government on 18 March. Hairdressers and other one-to-one businesses reopened from 20 April. Most shops reopened from 11 May, with cinemas allowed to reopen from 21 May – more than two weeks earlier than previously announced. From 6 November, a regional shutdown was announced in seven municipalities in North Jutland affecting about 280,000 people. Most businesses, including cinemas, were required to close. The Government announced the closure of all social activities in 38 of the 98 Danish municipalities from 9 December – representing around half of the Danish population. All Danish cinemas were ordered to close from 16 December and could be allowed to reopen from 28 February 2021. Danish citizens have been protesting against plans for a digital vaccine "passport" which could potentially be used for sports and cultural events as well as restaurants. The reopening process is expected to take place on a regional basis, which could delay the reopening of major chains. Denmark's Government hopes to agree by the end of March a definitive plan which will lay out how remaining coronavirus restrictions will be lifted. It was announced on 23 March that hairdressers, spas and other services could reopen and for more students to resume in-person classes from 6 April. Shopping malls can open on 21 April, while cinemas, music venues and restaurants will be allowed to reopen in early May. Many of the planned reopening schemes are contingent on the use of a so-called "corona-passport", which shows whether the holder has been vaccinated, has previously been infected or has taken a test within the last 72 hours. Denmark announced on 25 March a plan to ease lockdown over the coming weeks starting on 6 April. According to that plan, most indoor activities including cinemas will be allowed to reopen from 6 May. By the end of May, virtually all of Danish society is expected to be open, although the agreement suggests some questions remain over what to do about gatherings at major events and with nightclubs.

		On 6 April, Denmark was one of the first European country to introduce a COVID-19 passport scheme. The "coronapas" is available via a secure application or in paper format to people who have either been fully vaccinated, have tested positive for COVID-19 2 to 12 weeks previously or negative over the previous 72 hours. The pass will be required for citizens above 15 years old to enter certain businesses, including cinemas. Visitors will also be required to produce an ID to prove their identity, or risk being refused entrance. On 16 April, the Danish government announced a new political agreement which accelerates by two weeks the previous plan to lift the country's coronavirus restrictions. But cinemas are still scheduled to reopen from 6 May. It was confirmed in early May that cinemas would be allowed to reopen under the same safety guidelines that were introduced in 2020, in addition to the coronapass.
ESTONIA	OPEN 12 March to 1 June 2020 <hr/> 28 Dec. 2020 to February 2021 <hr/> 1 March 2021 to TBA 2021	Shopping malls reopened from 11 May. Public events were allowed to take place again from 1 June, allowing for the reopening of cinemas. Some sites reopened from mid-June, while others waited for early July. New restrictions, including the closure of cinemas, were introduced in mid-December in some Estonian counties. From 28 December, these restrictions were extended to the capital of Tallinn. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from early February, but with a 50% capacity limit. These local closures have halted the whole Estonian cinema industry throughout January 2021, delaying local releases. The Estonian government announced on 25 February that cinemas across the country would be closing from 1 March 2021 for at least one month. On 30 March, Estonia extended all COVID-19 restrictions by two weeks until 25 April. All shops except those selling essential goods were required to close.
FINLAND	CLOSED 18 March to 1 June 2020 <hr/> December 2020 to May 2021	The Government declared a ban on gatherings of 10 persons from 18 March but specified that cinemas were not forced to close. All cinemas decided to close after the announcement. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 1 June. Major chains decided to reopen between the last week of June and mid-July. From September, the Finnish Government introduced a localised strategy to fight COVID-19. Based on this system, cinemas across Finland were required to follow distancing rules and hygiene protocols. From 27 October, public events were limited to 10 in the region of Vaasa. From 20 November, to 20 in the region of Helsinki. From late November to December (depending on the region), all public events and gatherings of more than 10 people were banned in 12 Finnish regions, representing 80% of the Finnish population. Most if not all cinemas in those regions decided

		to close, while a few continued to operate. In the rest of the country, 6 regions limited gatherings to 20 and the remaining 2 to 50 people. Those restrictions could be eased in February 2021, with different deadlines depending on the region. The Government has announced stricter measures across most of the country, including the closures of bars and restaurants from 8 to 28 March in what was described as a national shutdown. On 9 April, the Government announced a draft plan for the gradual relaxing and removal of coronavirus restrictions. The plan would see primary school students return in April while bars and restaurants would be permitted to reopen with limited occupancy. In May, public spaces such as libraries and museums will be allowed to reopen. In June, restrictions on public gatherings will be relaxed and audience events will be allowed, with limits on attendance. All restrictions would be removed somewhere between July and August. On 21 April, the Finnish Government introduced its exit strategy. According to the announced timeline, cinemas could reopen their door in May as the government plans to allow indoor events for 50 people or less "as quickly as possible" in areas with adequately low numbers of new coronavirus cases. As of 23 April, cinemas are allowed to operate across the country but with a capacity limit of 6 per show in 10 out of 21 counties, 10 per show in 4 counties, and 20 per show in the remaining 7 counties. Major chains have decided to only operate in counties with a 20 persons capacity limit – most major cities, including Helsinki and Tampere, are not allowing for that attendance level.
FRANCE	CLOSED 14 March to 22 June 2020 <hr/> 30 Oct. 2020 to 19 May 2021	All shops reopened from 11 May. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 22 June. Most cinemas (97%) effectively reopened from that date. From 17 October, a curfew was introduced from 9PM to 6AM in several major French cities. This rule was extended to 2/3 of the French population from 24 October. The French Government announced a second national lockdown from 30 October, which resulted in the closure of all local cinemas. It was announced on 24 November that cinemas would be allowed to reopen on 15 December, but this decision was reversed following a spike in national cases. The French cinema federation FNCF challenged this decision at the French highest court (Conseil d'État). All French operators switched on the lights of their cinemas on 15 December as a show of protest and solidarity. Additional restrictions were introduced from mid-January across France, including a curfew from 6PM. On 26 February, the French prime minister warned that the Government would impose new measures, including weekend lockdowns in

		some cities and regions, from the start of March if signs of the coronavirus accelerating persist. It was announced on 5 March that Paris would not be put under weekend lockdowns. Nice and Dunkirk remain under weekend lockdown, which has been extended to the department around the Channel port. The FNCF issued an open letter on 12 March to the French President asking for an urgent reopening. It was announced on 18 March that a new 4-week lockdown would be introduced from 20 March across 16 French departments, including Paris and its region. In these departments, non-essential businesses will be required to close and people can only travel within 10km of their house (with a certificate). Detailed information can be found here. On 25 March, the partial lockdown was extended to 3 additional departments. The Minister of Culture met representatives from the cinema sector in mid-March to discuss the reopening process. While no reopening date was mentioned, a potential process for easing down restrictions was outlined. This could in theory be made up of three consecutive steps, each 3-4 weeks long, with first 1/3 occupancy, 2/3 and a complete reopening as the final and third step. On 31 March, a third lockdown was announced for the whole country from 3 April – with the measures already in place in 19 departments extended to the rest of the nation. Most shops were closed and people were barred from travelling more than 10km from their homes. During the same announcement, it was mentioned that the cultural sector could start reopening from mid-May. On 29 April, it was announced that cinemas and other cultural venues could reopen from 19 May with a 35% occupancy limit – which in effect will mean two empty seats between groups of maximum six cinema-goers, with a limit of 800 people per room. There will be a curfew at 9PM. From 9 June, cinemas will be allowed to increase occupancy to 65% (or one seat between groups of visitors) with a 11PM curfew, and from 30 June to 100% occupancy (with sanitary rules to be respected) without a curfew. These following steps will depend on the local epidemiological situation at department level – if there are more than 400 COVID-19 cases per 100,000 inhabitants, then local authorities can decide to introduce new measures or slow down the reopening process.
GERMANY	CLOSED 14-18 March to 15 May - 30 June 2020	The decision to close cinemas was made by local State authorities, with different start and end dates applied across the country. The first reopening phase started on 20 April and was managed on a state basis, with reopening dates for local cinemas ranging from 15 May to 30 June.

	2 Nov. 2020 to June 2021	On 14 October, cities or regions where infection rates were rising rapidly had to impose an 11PM curfew for bars and restaurants. Additional restrictions based on local infection rates were also introduced. A national “lockdown-light” was announced on 28 October, resulting in the closure of all local cinemas from 2 November. The national lockdown was later extended until 14 February, with new rules making it mandatory to wear medical masks in shops and on public transport. The Schleswig-Holstein state government presented in late January a four-stage plan as a possible nationwide model for a gradual exit from lockdown. Cinemas would reopen last under this proposal. The German cinema association HDF Kino publicly criticized the suggestion and called on local politicians to modify and adapt the plan to make it more balanced. All the associations representing Germany cinema operators and distributors formally reached out on 8 February to Federal and state authorities, asking for a clear reopening framework and timeline, advocating for a coherent, nation-wide coordinated reopening around Easter 2021. The lockdown was extended by three weeks until 7 March. Despite demands from the sector, there are no perspectives yet for the cultural sector and discussions about a potential reopening date have been postponed to 3 March. It was announced in early March that cinemas could in theory start reopening from 22 March, depending on infection rates in the coming weeks. These new rules are localised and can differ from state to state (and within states, from one region or city to another). The process involved was also extremely complex. It was for instance not clear what restrictions would apply to reopening sites and whether they could vary from one state to another. As a reminder, the German cinema association has advocated for a nation-wide, coordinated reopening process – which is not the case. Therefore, few cinemas were expected to be able to reopen as early as the end of March. It was announced on 23 March that Germany was extending the current lockdown to April 18. The country will enter an even stricter lockdown from April 1 to April 5 over the Easter holiday period, when shops, including grocery stores, will largely have to close. In a surprise U-turn, German Chancellor Angela Merkel cancelled this last plan just a day after the measures were announced. The country’s partial lockdown, meanwhile, has been extended until at least 18 April. It was announced in late March that some German states would allow large parts of public life - including culture and cinema-going – to restart with the help of mass rapid tests from 18 April. Cinemas could in theory welcome

		guests if they can produce a negative corona rapid tests done in the last 24 hours. Saarland has indicated that it would be able to achieve this thanks to an efficient local test structure. Bavaria also indicated it would do this in 8 major cities, including Munich. On 29 March, Angela Merkel threatened to centralise Germany’s pandemic response as several of the country’s federal states refuse to implement an emergency brake mechanism on easing restrictions in spite of rapidly rising infection rates. On 9 April, the German Health Minister said the country needed to implement nationwide measures to break the current wave of coronavirus infections as quickly as possible. On 13 April, it was announced that the German government would introduce a national infections control law that would hand Federal authorities more centralised power to impose sweeping restrictions. The proposed changes, criticised by some states, could give the Federal Government the power to impose night-time curfews, close schools and non-essential shops and restrict private gatherings in areas with high infection rates. Angela Merkel has stressed it is only a temporary measure which will remain in place until June 30, after which any changes will require the approval of the Bundestag. Based on the new law, also called “emergency brake”, the federal Government introduced a raft of new restrictions from 25 April, including a curfew from 10PM to 5AM as well as the closure of non-essential services, museums and other cultural institutions. These new restrictions are currently expected to last until June. Confirming that German states would announce different reopening dates, the Bavarian Prime Minister indicated on 3 May that cinemas should be allowed to reopen from 10 May – but with an obligation for visitors to provide a negative COVID-19 test.
GREECE	CLOSED 12 March to 29 June 2020 <hr/> 3 Nov. 2020 to TBA 2021	Small retail shops and hairdressers were the first allowed to reopen from 4 May. Shopping malls reopened from 18 May, followed by restaurants and bars from 25 May. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 29 June. Greece imposed a curfew in areas most affected by COVID-19 from 24 October, including Athens, from 12.30AM to 5AM. Several new restrictions were introduced from 3 November in Athens and other major Greek cities, including a curfew from midnight to 5AM, mandatory use of face masks in all public areas and the full closure of places of entertainment – including cinemas. Most Greek cinemas closed from that date. Greece went back into a national lockdown from 7 November. Hairdressers, bookstores and other retailers were allowed to reopen from 14 December.

		Schools, shops and other businesses were allowed to reopen from 11 February- but not cinemas. It was announced on 29 January that schools would after all not reopen following a rise in local cases. Greece extended its coronavirus lockdown to 16 March as it reported the highest number of new cases recorded so far in 2021. From 5 April, small retail shops will reopen. Consumers will need to make appointments and comply with a 3-hour limit for shopping. On 21 April, the Greek Government announced its reopening timeline. Outdoor terraces of restaurants and coffee shops will be allowed to reopen on May 3. The curfew will be reduced from 9PM to 11PM. Primary and elementary schools will open on May 10. It was also reported that various cultural activities would restart from 15 May, but it is not clear if this includes indoor cinemas.
HUNGARY	OPEN Only vaccinated visitors allowed <hr/> 17 March to 18 June 2020 <hr/> 11 Nov. 2020 to 1 May 2021	With the exception of Budapest and its surrounding areas, most businesses were allowed to reopen from 1 May 2020. The state of emergency was lifted on 18 June, allowing cinemas to reopen immediately. Most cinemas decided to reopen from early July. A state of emergency was introduced again in Hungary from 4 November. As part of the new restrictions, a curfew was introduced from midnight to 5AM, only every third chair can be occupied at public event, and mask wearing became mandatory at all time. Most cinemas decided to close following these announcements. New restrictions were introduced from 11 November resulting in the formal closure of all cinemas. These restrictions were later extended to 1 March and then again to 15 March. Additional restrictions were announced on 8 March, including closing most stores for two weeks and kindergartens and primary schools until April 7. Hungary's prime minister said on 23 March that the country would not reopen its economy before all citizens older than 65 who have registered for a Covid-19 vaccine are jabbed. He also stated there was a "realistic chance" of schools reopening from April 19, once teachers and staff have been vaccinated. As of 26 March, 71% of those aged above 65 years who have registered for a jab have been vaccinated. The decision to reopen schools was delayed by three weeks on 9 April. Restaurant and bar terraces were allowed to reopen from 24 April, along with a curfew reduction to 11PM. It was announced in late April that most businesses would be allowed to reopen, including cinemas, most probably from 30 April or 1 May when the number of vaccinated people reach 4m. Only vaccinated visitors will be allowed to enter reopened businesses. Various independent cinemas have indicated they would reopen immediately, while some major chains have announced they would reopen at a later stage. Immunity-certificates holders won't have to wear masks, but it remains mandatory for staff members. Visitors under 18 years old must be accompanied by adult immunity-certificate holders. A 11PM curfew is still enforced.

IRELAND	CLOSED 16 March to 29 June 2020 <hr/> 7 Oct. 2020 to 2 Dec. 2020 <hr/> 24 Dec. 2020 to TBA 2021 LOCAL CLOSURES 19 Sept. 2020 to TBA 2021(Dublin)	National health authorities' guidance on social distancing (2m) effectively closed all cinemas from 16 March. The Irish Government ordered the closure of all non-essential businesses on 25 March. Cinemas were initially only allowed to re-open in the final official reopening phase, starting from 10 August, but the date was moved forward to 20 July and then again to 29 June. Dublin cinemas were forced to close from 19 September after being placed in Level 3 of the Irish Framework for Restrictive Measures in Response to COVID-19. The Irish Government announced new nationwide restrictions from 7 October, including the closure of Irish cinemas. Cinemas were allowed to reopen from 2 December. Following a rise in local cases, cinemas were required to close again from 24 December. A reopening date has yet to be announced. 	Five coronavirus “red zones” in Italy returned to a full lockdown from 6 November, with all non-essential shops required to close. Cinemas are expected to remain closed throughout January and February 2021, as lockdown measures were extended to at least 5 March by the Italian Government. Leading health experts have publicly criticised the current tiered system of regional restrictions as “ineffective” and have urged ministers to follow the example of other European countries in implementing stricter measures. The Italian Government indicated that current restrictions would not be eased in March 2021 and that the tiered system would be maintained. Culture Minister Dario Franceschini has pushed for the new decree to allow the reopening of cinemas by 27 March and announced that the Government's technical scientific committee, which advises on public health measures, had given its green light. This date was chosen for its symbolic nature - World Theatre Day falls on 27 March. In theory, cinemas located in yellow zones could be allowed to reopen from that date with preassigned seats, a 1m safety distance, a 10PM curfew, a 25% capacity limit, a ban on F&B sales, temperature checks at the entrance and mandatory mask wearing at all time. It remains to be seen how many regions will be qualified as yellow zones by the end of the month. It was announced on 12 March that Italy’s government was expected to announce the closure of schools, restaurants and shops across most of the country – Lombardy and Calabria will be qualified as red zones from 15 March, with several other regions moving to orange. Moreover, a nationwide lockdown was announced for the Easter weekend, from 3-5 April. On those days, Italians will be allowed to leave their homes only for work, health or emergency reasons. Anti-coronavirus lockdown measures in Italy were later extended to April 13. It was announced on 19 April that several COVID-19 restrictions would be eased as of 26 April. In regions classified at orange and yellow risk, in-person teaching in schools will restart, and bars and restaurants will be able to reopen for lunch and dinner, but only with outdoor service. Around 120 cinemas – mostly art-houses – reopened from 26 April, located in big cities in so-called yellow areas. A 10PM curfew remained in place. Malls required to close on weekends. Multiplexes have decided to remain closed until the release of major titles, probably from mid-May. Cinemas that have reopened must enforce distanced seating, reserved seats, mandatory mask wearing and a ban on F&B sales. Occupancy is limited to 50%, with a maximum cap of 500 per show.

Restaurants and cinemas followed from 1 June. Following a spike in local cases, the Dutch Government placed six regions under increased restrictions from 18 September, including bars being required to close at midnight. This requirement was extended to cinema from 21 September, with local operators in those six regions required to close between 1AM and 6AM. These requirements were extended to an additional 8 regions from 27 September. On 28 September, the Dutch Government announced reinforced measures for the whole country, limiting admissions to 30 people per screening room. Cinemas with a restaurant or cafe area were required to close it at 10PM and stop welcoming new customers from 9PM. The Netherlands introduced a "partial lockdown" from 14 October. It was announced on 4 November that cinemas would be required to close. They were allowed to reopen from 19 November, with other restrictions still in place.

	A third round of closure was announced in mid-December, with cinemas forced to close for a third time from 15 December. The closure was later extended to 2 March 2021. The Dutch prime minister has called on the country to respect a night-time curfew, saying it was still needed to fight the pandemic despite a court ruling on 16 February that the 9PM until 4.30AM curfew amounted to an unwarranted limitation of personal freedom and lacked proper legal basis. The appeals court later said that the 9pm-4:30am curfew introduced on 23 January was a proportional measure to tackle the Covid-19 crisis. The Government later extended existing restrictions until at least 15 March. The Netherlands will extend its coronavirus curfew until March 31. The Dutch Prime Minister said on 17 March that cinemas could reopen "in the summer" – a statement which was publicly criticized by the Dutch cinema association. The Government is currently discussing the introduction of "COVID-19 test certificates" which would be mandatory in order to attend public events or enter certain businesses. The proposal has been submitted for consultation to the public and has been met with criticism by cinema operators. In late March, the Dutch cinema association formally announced it would not take part in the pilot project. The government will launch a limited number of test pilots in April. The pilots are small-scale, carried out by participating parties on a maximum of 3 consecutive days. Not participating in the pilots has no consequences for when the sector is allowed to reopen. From 31 March the start of the curfew will be pushed back to 10PM, after local authorities said daylight savings time would make it difficult for the police to enforce the original rule. The Dutch government announced on 11 April that the curfew and other restrictions would remain until at least 28 April as daily infections rose to a two-week high. From 28 April, the first step of the national reopening plan will involve the reopening of terraces and shops as well as the end of the curfew. The third step – currently scheduled for 26 May – includes the reopening of cinemas under certain conditions, such as a to be announced capacity limit. This maximum capacity will be increased in the following steps, scheduled for June 16 and July 7. The reopening plan of course depends on various epidemiological parameters. The Dutch Government has indicated that cinemas could reopen earlier if they agreed to so-called 'quick tests' – with only visitors with a valid negative test certificate allowed to enter. Local exhibitors oppose this suggestion.

There was a lot of confusion following the announcement, as the Swiss Minister of Culture initially announced that cinemas would be allowed to remain open. Restriction measures were later extended to February, with cinemas and other non-essential services not expected to reopen before March. It was announced in mid-February that non-essential shops, museums, libraries, zoos and botanical gardens will be allowed to reopen from 1 March. From 22 March, outdoor events with audiences of up to 150 people could be allowed, while indoor events - including cinemas - would be limited to 50 attendees. Mask wearing would be mandatory at all time, along with a 1.5m safety distance. It was decided on 19 March to postpone the reopening of cinemas and other businesses as the local epidemiological situation worsened. It was announced on 14 April that cinemas would be allowed to reopen from 19 April, with a capacity limit of 50 people or 1/3 of the screening room, mandatory mask wearing, a ban on F&B sales and consumption and contact tracing - similar to the rules enforced in 2020. Outside terraces of restaurants, gyms and cultural venues were also allowed to reopen from that date.
SWEDEN	PARTLY CLOSED 24 November to TBA 2021	The main Swedish operator closed its sites on 18 March due to official restrictions on social gatherings. A few independent cinemas remained open. The Swedish Government did not introduce a lockdown and many cinemas have remained open in the country throughout 2020. On 16 November, local authorities introduced a ban on public events of more than eight people. Cinemas and other businesses were again not formally required to close but citizens were urged to stay home as much as possible, creating confusion as to whether cinemas - as well as other businesses - were allowed to operate or not. The largest local chain - representing approximately 2/3 of the market - announced the closure of its cinemas from 24 November. A

		new pandemic law was introduced on 8 January giving the government power to close certain businesses or limit visitor numbers and opening hours, making new restrictions much more binding than those “recommended” in 2020. In late March, Sweden’s health agency asked the government to postpone a planned easing of some restrictions by nearly a month from 11 April to 3 May - provided that the infection situation improves.” It was announced on 22 April that this plan would again be postponed due to the ongoing high levels of new infections.
TURKEY	CLOSED 17 March to 3 July 2020 <hr/> 17 November to TBA 2021	On May 11, shopping centres, barbers and some shops were allowed to reopen. On 1 June, the national lockdown was lifted and restaurants and bars were allowed to reopen. Cinemas were only allowed to reopen from 3 July. Only 60% of Turkish cinemas had effectively reopened in August. From 4 November, restaurants, bars, hairdressers, barbers, cinemas and all other similar entertainment venues and businesses were required to close from 10PM. Cinemas were forced to close again from 17 November until at least 1 March. The Turkish Government has indicated in February 2021 that cinemas would only be allowed to reopen from 1 April. On 29 March, new restrictions were introduced across the country, to be effective during the month of Ramadan. Out of the country’s 81 provinces, 58 were identified as “red” or “very high-risk” zone, representing 80% of the total population. Restaurants can only serve as delivery and take-out, and a nationwide curfew from 9M-5AM will continue. The reopening of cinemas and other venues has been postponed to at least 12 May. It was announced on 12 April that Turkey’s coronavirus taskforce will recommend a tougher set of restrictions as the country battles its third wave. The lockdown was later extended to 17 May, and cinemas are not expected to reopen from date.
UKRAINE	OPEN 17 March to 2 July 2020 <hr/> 8 January to 24 January 2021 LOCAL CLOSURE 20 March 2021 to 9 April 2021 (Kyiv)	The Government outlined a five-step reopening plan, starting from 11 May. Cinemas were initially allowed to reopen from 10 June. Cinema operators, following negotiations with local authorities, formally agreed to reopen from 2 July. A weekend curfew was introduced across Ukraine in November, resulting in the closure of all local cinemas on Saturdays and Sundays. Most cinemas decided to continue to operate during weekdays. Schools, restaurants and gyms were closed from 8 January as a new nationwide lockdown took effect. The new measures also include the closure of entertainment centres – including cinemas – and a ban on mass gatherings until 24 January. Ukrainian authorities effectively brought to an end lockdown measures from 24 January, allowing for most businesses to reopen. Strict safety measures are still in

		place. Several local cinemas have effectively reopened from that date. A state of emergency, as well as a general quarantine, will remain in place until 28 February. The cities of Kyiv introduced a three-week lockdown from March 20 to April 9, with cinemas required to close. A similar lockdown was introduced in Lviv from March 19 to March 28.
UNITED KINGDOM	CLOSED 17 March to 4-27 July 2020 <hr/> Nov.-Dec. 2020 to Ap.-May 2021 LOCAL CLOSURE 16 October to 11 Dec. 2020 <hr/> 26 December to 24 May 2021 (Northern Ireland) <hr/> 23 October to 9 November <hr/> 20 December to 17 May 2021 (Wales) <hr/> 2 November to 17 May 2021 (Scotland) <hr/> 5 November to 2 Dec. 2020 <hr/> 4 January to 17 May 2021 (England)	On 16 March the Government advised that it was no longer safe to visit social venues. Most cinemas closed within 48 hours. On 20 March, the Government told all cinemas to close. The Government announced its exit strategy on 10 May, which indicated that cinemas could reopen from 4 July in England. 42 cinemas reopened on 4 July with wider reopening scheduled for the end of July. Northern Ireland announced that cinemas would be able to re-open from 10 July, while cinemas in Scotland would be able to re-open from 15 July and in Wales from 27 July. From 18 July, the Government's focus shifted from a national lockdown to targeted local lockdowns. On Tuesday 22 September, new restrictions were announced for England, including that, from Thursday 24 September, pubs, restaurants, bars as well as cinemas will only be allowed to operate up until 10PM. Screenings which began before 10PM were able to continue to their conclusion. A three-tier alert system was introduced on 12 October, allowing for the introduction of localised restrictions. In Northern Ireland, gatherings were limited to 15 people maximum from 16 October, resulting in the closure of cinemas until 11 December. In London, households were not allowed to mix indoors, including in pubs and restaurants from 17 October. Lancashire and Liverpool moved into Tier 3 - the top level of England's COVID restrictions - from 17 and 14 October respectively. The measures include pub closures and bans on household mixing indoors and most outdoor venues. Cinemas were able to operate in all tiers. In Wales, a national coronavirus "fire-break" was introduced from 23 October until 9 November, with cinemas closed during that time. In Scotland, most towns and cities were put in 'Level 3' from 2 November, resulting in the closure of the vast majority of local cinemas. Local pubs and restaurants have been allowed to remain open and remain subject to less exacting social distancing measures than do cinemas. England announced on 31 October the introduction of a lockdown from 5 November to 2 December, resulting in the closure of all local cinemas. England returned to a 'tier'

		system from that date, with increasing restrictions across all three tiers. Whereas before lockdown cinemas were able to open in all three tiers, it was decided that those in Tier 3 (the VERY HIGH Alert Level) would remain closed. It was confirmed on 26 November that cinemas in London and Liverpool could reopen from December 2, with several restrictions, while those in Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds, Newcastle and Bristol had to remain closed. Roughly a quarter of UK cinemas were operating in the first week of December. New restrictions announced on 13 December in London saw the closure of all cinemas from 15 December. Taken with other closures in the North of England, Scotland and much of Wales, around 20% of cinemas were operating across the country at the end of 2020. Following rises in cases across the country, new lockdowns were introduced in late December and early January, formally closing all local cinemas. Wales introduced a new lockdown on 20 December. Northern Ireland followed on 26 December, England on 4 January. Scotland introduced a similar lockdown. The Government announced on 22 February a roadmap for the relaxation of COVID-19 restrictions, as a result of which cinemas in England are expected to be able to re-open from Monday 17 May. Scotland announced a similar timeline with the same reopening date for cinemas. Wales announced it would ease some restriction from 13 March, with most shops and close-contact services to be allowed to reopen from 12 April. It is not entirely clear if cinemas are included in that last step, as for instance pubs and restaurants were specifically not included. On 1 April, the UK Cinema Association reiterated its opposition to any requirement that UK cinemas might be required to ask customers to ‘prove’ their COVID-free status when sites are allowed to re-open in the coming weeks. More information available here. On 5 April, an official document was published by local authorities committing to examine “whether and how COVID-status certification might be used to reopen our economy, reduce restrictions on social contact and improve safety”. On 12 April, non-essential businesses such as hairdressers, gyms and outside bars/restaurants were allowed to reopen in England. The Government has offered citizens the possibility to do regular COVID-19 tests (twice a week) to allow for further reopening steps. From 12 April, non-essential retail reopened and border restrictions were eased in Wales and England. The “stay at home” order in Northern Ireland has also ended, as the number of people permitted to meet outdoors increased

Schools were reopened in Wales, Northern Ireland and Scotland. It was confirmed on 23 April that cinemas would be allowed to reopen under the same timeframe than in England in Wales, from 17 May. It was announced that they would reopen slightly later in North-Ireland, from 24 May. The capacity limit will be set at 50% and a maximum of 1,000 visitors in England.

2. HEALTH AND SAFETY GUIDELINES

SUMMARY

National authorities have published health and safety guidelines which differ widely from one country to another – and evolve as restrictions are eased or tightened. For this reason, UNIC has not published official recommendations or set industry protocols.

Cinema operators and their national associations have developed guidelines to be used in their daily operations for the foreseeable future, in collaboration with, or under the guidance of, relevant public authorities. Ideally, at national level, these guidelines should serve as industry standards to be observed by all operators, to ensure consistency throughout each territory. All of the information in this section is subject to change as health and safety rules are regularly updated. Rules related to curfews are not included in the table below and can be found the previous section. For territories that are currently closed, the guidelines below were the last valid before closure.

From 29 September, the occupancy limit was brought back to 30 people per screening. Cinemas with a restaurant or cafe area had to close it at 10PM and not welcome new customers from 9PM – cinemas had to close at midnight. From 14 October, bars or restaurants located in cinemas had to close. Following consultation with relevant authorities, cinemas entirely stopped selling F&B from 20 October. From 14 October, mask wearing was made mandatory in indoor spaces. Cinema-goers could remove their mask once seated in the screening room. Additional details

Cinemas were authorised to reopen with a capacity limit of 50 people per screening, increased to 200 people from 15 June. From reopening on 7 May the social distance was defined as one meter from face to face. This allowed every second seat in an auditorium to be used with the exception of groups who could sit together. From 18 June the authorities redefined the metre from shoulder to shoulder. This allowed just every third seat to be used. From 12 October the meter was again defined as from face to face (every second seat), except for Oslo (every third seat).

Industry guidelines

The Norwegian cinema association Film&Kino published a set of key health and safety recommendations for cinema operators, which include, but are not limited to:

- Inform customers and staff about measures taken;
- Train staff to efficiently implement those rules;
- Ensure social distancing in common areas, also between staff members, and reduce physical interactions (plexiglass at box office, etc.);
- Only card/contactless payment, no cash;
- Encourage online sales;
- Extra hygiene measures to be taken across the cinema, for specific areas as well as F&B, have hand sanitizer available across your cinema, etc.;
- Ensure at least a 1 metre distance (previously 2 metre) between each customer outside of the auditorium;
- Adapt seating arrangements to respect official social distancing rules (depending on row distance/seats it will vary from room to room);
- Staggered end/start times so as to avoid queues;
- Minimum 30 minutes for cleaning/disinfection between performances;
- Sick employees should stay at home;
- Ensure good air ventilation;
- The cinema must inform customers that contact information is stored for two weeks after the time of payment for infection control reasons (new rule included on 15 July).

Film&Kino also drafted a document outlining cinemas' reopening strategy. The document is available here, in Norwegian. Specifically related to health and safety measures, its recommendations include:

- Contact local authorities for advice and guidance;
- Practice/train staff to perform all new cleaning routines that must be introduced in advance;
- Provide clean uniforms to all employees;
- Buy latex work gloves;
- Hand disinfection stations must always be accessible to everyone;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thoroughly clean and disinfect all equipment and furnishings several times before reopening; • Regularly clean specific contact areas and surfaces at least 5 times a day once reopened; • Inform and communicate efficiently with staff and customers about the new measures that have been introduced. In addition to these health and safety guidelines, the reopening document also includes considerations related to rent payments, maintenance of equipment and building, finances and insurance, inventory, etc.

These limits have continued to evolve at local level throughout 2020 and early 2021. The Spanish Government made it mandatory for all citizens above 6 y/o to wear masks both indoors and out in public from 21 May, if social distancing was not possible. 3. SUPPORT MECHANISMS

Support measures have been introduced across Europe, with varying levels of detail and effective actions from authorities. However, schemes specific to the film, or even cultural, sector have been relatively limited. And while crisis management or so-called emergency funds were introduced swiftly almost everywhere in Europe, few Governments have announced long-term recovery schemes.

The UNIC infographic on support measures for European cinemas – available online along with a manifesto on the value of the European cinema industry – provides a summary of the range of national, European and sector initiatives that have been introduced across the region.

In the sub-sections below, we have included measures that specifically target the cultural or cinema sector, as well as broader support mechanisms such as special loans, grants, employment support schemes, measures related to rent payments and taxation measures. For audience engagement initiatives, please consult our regularly updated public database on the topic.

3.1. SUPPORT FOR THE CULTURAL AND CINEMA SECTOR

SUMMARY

Support measures specifically targeting cinemas, or even the cultural sector, have been relatively limited across Europe – though it is worth pointing out that most of the broader measures described later in this research are of relevance to cinema operators and their partners from the film sector.

COUNTRY	DETAILS
AUSTRIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reduced VAT on cinema tickets VAT on cinema tickets was reduced to 5% (from 13%) until the end of the year, in order to help the sector cope. This decision has been effective for all sales in the cultural sector. Cultural institutions also benefited from deferred social security contributions. • Grants for event organisers The European Commission approved in January 2021 a €300 million Austrian scheme to support organisers of events affected by the coronavirus outbreak. Under the scheme, economic assistance is provided to all undertakings that will organise events taking place in Austria between 1 February 2021 and 31 December 2022 and that will have to be cancelled or organised with significant restrictions. The public support will take the form of direct grants. It is not yet entirely clear if cinemas can apply. • Local support scheme A support scheme was introduced in the city of Vienna, with grants of €50,000 distributed to cinemas of less than 5 screens.
BELGIUM	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support guidelines Guidelines have been created specifically for the cultural sector, to explain available support mechanisms and the application process. See Flanders guidelines and FAQ here, in Flemish. • Support from film funds and local entities

	The Belgian cinema federation FCB estimates that cinema operators have lost roughly €4.3m of potential revenues per week of closure, excluding fixed costs. Belgian film support bodies have introduced more flexibility regarding administrative, reporting and other funding conditions until the end of 2020. Cultural policies are managed at local, community level, with different support initiatives announced for Belgian cinemas, including the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Brussels-Wallonia Federation introduced an emergency support fund of €50m specifically targeting those worst-hit by the crisis, in particular the cultural and AV sector. The fund was divided in several instalments. The first instalment was worth €8.5m and meant to cover losses endured between 14 March and 3 May. More information available here, in French. This initial support fund was split between the 321 cultural institutions and businesses who applied, with €1.6m going to the film sector specifically, including cinema operators. A second €8.5m instalment covers the period of 4 May to 5 July, followed by additional instalments covering the rest of 2020. - On 25 May, the Brussels-Wallonia Federation announced a recovery plan of €6m to support the entire film value chain, including arthouse cinemas (as defined by the Federation), with three key measures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Covering all costs related to the acquisition of sanitary equipment; ▪ The purchase of 20,000 tickets, to be redistributed to cinema-goers (sold at €1 in 11 art-house cinemas every Tuesday until the end of August); ▪ Launching a reopening campaign dedicated to arthouse cinemas. More information available here, in French. - In Flanders, a Flemish emergency corona fund of almost €300m was introduced. 30% of its budget goes to local authorities. They can use this to support local culture, youth and sports associations. €65m will be redistributed as grants for the cultural sector, through 411 structurally subsidised organizations. - A support scheme for the Flemish cultural sector was introduced whereby vulnerable core players in the Flemish cultural ecosystem who were currently unable to benefit from the various federal and/or regional compensation measures, but have nevertheless suffered damage from the corona crisis, can apply for a 1,500€ grant. - In Brussels, a recovery plan was introduced in June 2020 to support the cultural, event and tourism sector, with a fund worth €5m in direct grants. The support scheme includes a fund for cinema operators related to investments in online ticketing (€10,000 maximum per company), sanitary measures/equipment (€10,000 maximum per company) and digital solutions (€30,000 maximum/50% of the total amount invested per company). More information available here. - The Ministry of Culture of the Brussels-Wallonia Federation has included cinemas in its recovery plan and made a budget of €645,000 available for around 40 independent cinemas. The amounts awarded will depend on the number of screenings in particular: €7,500 for cinemas with a single-screen or dual-screens, scheduling at least 15 sessions per week and €15,000 for cinemas with more screens with a minimum of 30 screenings per week. More information available here.
BULGARIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for the cultural sector

	The Bulgarian Government will support the cultural sector with nearly €2.5m. €1.4m will be directed to freelance artists and independent cultural organisations through the Ministry of Culture and €1.1m will be allotted through the National Culture Fund.
CROATIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for the cultural sector The Ministry of Culture established a crisis fund to provide support to the cultural sector. It will cover the fields of activity under the responsibility of the Ministry of Culture, the Croatian Audiovisual Center and the Culture New Foundation. • Innovative project grants The Ministry of Culture launched a public call to encourage entrepreneurship in the cultural and creative sectors for 2020. The call is aimed at designing and establishing alternative ways and models of business that would mitigate the negative impact of the coronavirus pandemic on the liquidity of cultural and creative industries, in the interest of long-term application and usability of new solutions in further business. Grants are granted up to 85% of the eligible costs of the proposed project. More information is available here. • Guaranteed loans for the cultural sector A Guarantee Programme for loans to entrepreneurs active in the field of culture and creativity was approved by the European Commission on 17 June 2020. Entrepreneurs will be able to take out a loan from a bank of up to €800,000, for which the Croatian Government provides a 100% guarantee. The interest rate will be up to 2% and the repayment period includes a grace period of at least one year and a maximum of five years. More information is available here.
CZECH REPUBLIC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal assistance The Audiovisual Producers' Association and the Czech Film Fund provided legal assistance to all film industry workers regarding support programs and national financial help available. • Support from film fund In mid-May 2020, the State Fund for Cinematography announced a special €50m fund for the promotion of films in cinemas. All cinema operators could apply. The main purpose of this scheme was to help cinemas cope with the very strict restrictions upon reopening. The Czech Film Fund has provided financial support worth a total of €1.5m to local cinema operators, first distributed in Spring 2020 via grants based on revenues made in 2019 – with received amounts varying between 1,000€ and 30,000€ per cinema – and in Autumn 2020 based on number of screens per company. This second support mechanism has not been delivered to cinemas as of February 2021. • Reduced VAT on cinema tickets The VAT on cinema ticket was exceptionally reduced from 15% to 10%. • Grants for event organisers The European Commission approved a €34 million (CZK 900 million) Czech scheme to support companies who had to cancel or postpone event(s) due to the restrictive measures that the Czech Republic had to implement to limit the spread of the coronavirus. The public support will take the form of direct grants and will cover up to 50% of eligible expenses, i.e. the expenses incurred by the operator to organise the event/s that was ultimately postponed or cancelled. In order to be eligible for support under the scheme, the relevant expenses must have been

	incurred between 1 October 2019 and 17 May 2020 for events which were to take place between 10 March 2020 and 31 August 2020. The Czech Government introduced a scheme in later 2020 for private venues like cinemas, with 1€ per seat per day of closure between 12 October and 31 December 2020 – with a ceiling of €1,090 per company.
DENMARK	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for cultural events The Danish Parliament presented a summer package in June supporting the cultural sector by financing half price tickets for various cultural activities, but the scheme did not apply to cinemas. The Government initially explained it would have been forbidden under EU state aid rules but tracked back in September 2020. The ministries of Culture and Commerce then introduced a joint “activity-supporting-package”, running from 1 September to 31 October, worth 300m DKK (app. €40m) for the whole cultural industry. The scheme was extended in October and will be running until January 2021. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for organising events A small aid package worth €2m specifically targeting cinemas was introduced in late October, covering the months of November, December 2020 and January 2021. Unfortunately, this support package only covers direct or indirect costs related to the organisation of film screenings that took place between 1 September and 31 December 2020. For instance, investment in sanitary equipment or in audience engagement, energy bills or rent, etc. The scheme does not support revenue losses incurred during closure. These restrictions – and the complex nature of the application requirements, available here – made it challenging for local cinemas to apply to the funding. The maximum amount available for applications is €40,300 – but the amount is also dependent on the number of total applications. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for local audiovisual sector In mid-November, the Danish Ministry of Culture earmarked €12 million to offset the impact of the coronavirus on the country’s audiovisual industry, with a focus on production of local content. Of this, €2.3 million will be earmarked for the Danish Film Institute, the country’s audiovisual agency, to cover additional costs generated by the health crisis and to ensure the funding of an undiminished number of Danish films in the coming years. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support guidelines An online database of all the compensation schemes that can be applied for (via the Danish Ministry of Culture) is available here. ESTONIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support for cultural sector The Culture and Sport Crisis Package totals €25m, with the Ministry of Culture seeking to ensure the sustainability of cultural organisations. The package includes compensation for already incurred costs and unavoidable fixed costs related to the interruption of events and organisations in the fields of culture and sport. The Estonian government has announced in March 2021 a €42m support package for the struggling cultural sector. The film sector will receive €5.3m, of which €3.3m is earmarked for cinemas and film distributors. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support from local film fund

	The Estonian Film Institute will distribute €1.3m as compensation measures to face the challenges in the film sector caused by the COVID-19 outbreak. €800k will go to film production, distribution and cinemas. FINLAND	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support from local film fund The Finnish Film Foundation received €1m from the Ministry of Education and Culture to help relieve the situation of cinemas and film festivals during the restrictions on public gatherings caused by the pandemic. €900,000 was allocated to cinemas. Cinema operators had to apply to benefit from this fund. The relief funds are available for small and medium-sized cinemas whose operations have ceased and for film festivals supported by The Finnish Film Foundation who have had to cancel or postpone their event from March 13 – May 31, 2020. More information available here. A second support round worth €1.2m was later allocated to distributors and cinemas. As part of this scheme, cinemas were allocated over €800k in support, distributed between 108 cinemas. • Support from cultural institutions Funding totalling approximately €1.5m has been allocated via the Arts Promotion Centre (Taika). Different foundations will also grant significant sums in aid through their own channels.

The CNC announced that €60m will be used to support the Centre specifically (and balance its significant financial losses during the crisis – which are estimated at €113-121m by the French Government). The remaining €105m will be invested in a plan entitled “export and attractivity”, which will include targeted projects and a reinforced support of cinemas, festivals, cinemathèques and film education workshops. This support scheme will be running between 1 September and the end of 2020. It covers 50% of the losses for independent cinema operators (around €23m in total) and 40% for the large chains (around €27m in total). The exact amount will be calculated based on average admissions between 2017 and 2019 (so approximately €20-25 cents per ticket sold, or €20-25k per site that achieved 100,000 admissions per year). The payment will be divided in two payments, with €40m/80% at the end of October and the remaining €10m/20% in early 2021. The money will be transferred to all cinema operators who can benefit from it, without a need to apply for it. More information available here, in French. The CNC created a page to share information on the schemes introduced by the Centre to support cinema operators, available here. ▪ On 22 October, the French Minister of Culture announced that an additional €30m fund would be allocated to support the cinema sector following the new curfew announcements across the country. The Government has publicly acknowledged that evening screenings – cancelled because of the curfew – represent roughly 50% of cinema operators’ revenues. This fund will be specifically dedicated to the release of films during the curfew period, as cinemas operators insisted that what they needed most was content in the coming weeks. ▪ Following the extension of the second lockdown from 15 December to at least 7 January, the French culture minister Roselyne Bachelot has requested an extra €35m to help cultural venues that will not reopen as planned. ▪ The CNC will redistribute a support fund worth €15m between French cinema operators, to cover for the second round of closure in late 2020. As part of this law, SMEs (less than 250 employees) can be fully exonerated of certain social charges related to salaries due for the period between February 1 and May 31. This measure has been renewed under the same conditions for the period between September 1 (for companies affected by the curfew) or October 1 (for others) to November 30 and should be extended until January 30, 2021. Large businesses can benefit from a special scheme to support the payment of social charges for the same period. For businesses that are struggling to pay other social charges that were due by 30 June, the law allows for staggered payments and debt delays. When it comes to cinema exhibition, the programme is available only to small Arthouse Cinemas who have been awarded a Kinoprogrammpreis. The German cinema association, HDF Kino, highlighted that only 50% of Germany cinema operators could apply for the federal emergency aid. It was reported in April 2021 that the Kinoprogrammpreis would be awarded a budget of €5m in 2021. There would be no jury this time, as only arthouse cinemas that have received the award in the last two years would be eligible to apply. Running from July, the programme, under the name NEUSTART KULTUR / Zukunftsprogramm Kino, targeted cinemas through the following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pandemic-related investment in cultural institutions. This means investment in online ticketing systems, modernisation of ventilation systems, adaptation of visitor guidance, etc.; - Preservation and strengthening cultural infrastructure and emergency aid. The film sector is being helped with €120m to primarily support cinemas and finance additional needs for film production and distribution. The support plan was regularly renewed throughout 2020 and 2021, with three programmes following each other under the NEUSTART KULTUR umbrella: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Zukunftsprogramm Kino I was intended to strengthen cinemas throughout Germany, especially outside of metropolitan areas (cinemas with up to seven screens and meeting certain criteria can apply for funding). Cinema operators can receive support via grants of €60,000 for one-screen cinemas and 45,000 € for two-screen cinemas. The programme, initially worth €5m, increased its budget to €22m and then again to €30m following high demand. The available budget was spent in its entirety by February 2021.

- Zukunftsprogramm Kino II – introduced on 15 July 2021 and building up on Zukunftsprogramm Kino I, addressing smaller cinemas - a funding programme worth €40m to support cinemas (that do not meet the application requirements for Zukunftsprogramm Kino I) in their resumption of operations following closure, particularly in the implementation of protective measures as a result of COVID-19 restrictions. In addition, the programme will support future-oriented investments to strengthen the attractiveness of cinemas. Applications could be submitted from 1 August 2020 and more information is available here. HDF Kino members have reported that despite a clear connection with the corona pandemic, applications to the programme were rejected due to unclear interpretation of the funding principles.
- Zukunftsprogramm Kino III, announced in September 2020, supported cinemas by covering operating costs during the reopening phase with grants worth a total of €30m.

On 4 February, it was announced that an additional €1b fund will be dedicated to the cultural sector, with 60 sub-programmes targeting cinemas, museums, theatres and other venues as well as artists. The objective of this fund is to help the sector cover expenses and losses relate to the current crisis but also to stimulate investment in innovation and digitisation. More details about the programme and its exact distribution will be shared in the coming weeks. This scheme is a direct follow-up program to the NEUSTART KULTUR rescue and future program.

In April 2021, the budget committee of the German Bundestag decided that the funds for the individual funding lines of NEUSTART KULTUR would in principle be available until the end of 2022. It was also announced that funds for administrative processing would still be available in 2023 (if necessary). The decision is subject to the supplementary budget coming into force in 2021.

3.5. RENT AND RELATED EXPENSES

SUMMARY

Across Europe, with a few exceptions included below, exhibitors are currently still being asked to pay rent and service charges by landlords, despite their properties being closed to the public. A growing number of Governments – or local, relevant authorities – are introducing measures to delay rent payments for businesses during the crisis.

COUNTRY	DATA	DETAILS
ALBANIA	Measures	A Government decree delayed monthly rents for small businesses,
AUSTRIA	Measures	All businesses that were forced to close by the Government could benefit from fixed cost compensation. This would cover a period running from 16 March to 15 June. The share of fixed costs covered would depend on the level of revenue loss, with a maximum of 75% compensated for companies that experienced at least an 80% loss in turnover. In addition, businesses can benefit from a reduced corporate tax, which can cover approximately 6.5% of your fixed costs. This support scheme was renewed following the announcement of a second lockdown in Austria, with a ceiling of €3m per company – strictly covering fixed costs such as rent or energy bills.
BELGIUM	Measures	In the commune of Brussels City, the payment of rents for businesses was delayed. Similar schemes were introduced at local level (region or city).
BULGARIA	Measures	The concept of force majeure did not apply to rent in Bulgaria, cinemas were therefore still obliged to pay rent.
CYPRUS	Figures	Approx. €1m for April, May in June in fixed costs for cinema operators.
	Measures	Negotiated on a case-by-case basis with landlords. Following the introduction of a second lockdown in January 2021, the Government announced state sponsorship to cover rents, and other operating expenses of companies and the self-employed, amounting to €200m.
DENMARK	Measures	If companies were forced by law to close down, all expenditure including rent was fully covered by the State. Following a second round of closure from 16 December, the scheme was renewed. Following the announcement of a lockdown in North Jutland from 6 November, the Danish government announced that businesses that were forced to close in the region would receive support covering all fixed costs.
ESTONIA	Measures	The Estonian Government supported businesses who were forced to close because of the coronavirus emergency – by contributing up to 25% of their rental expenses for a month. Landlords were encouraged to contribute by the Government.
FINLAND	Measures	The Finnish Government introduced a fixed costs compensation scheme covering April and May. This mechanism has not been renewed.

		The City of Helsinki decided to temporarily waive rental payments on commercial premises and terraces (more info). Municipalities support (described in the support scheme section of this document) could be used for any business expenses, particularly fixed costs such as rents.
FRANCE	Measures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The companies that can benefit from the solidarity fund to support small business (described in the support scheme section of this document) were able to delay payments of rent and related expenses. Larger companies must negotiate on a case-by-case basis with landlords. More information on the FNCF website, in French. - The Minister of Economy introduced an incentive of three months cancelled rent payments for very small businesses (less than 10 employees/€2m annual revenues). There was no obligation for landlords to apply it, but they were encouraged to do so. The FNCF provides detailed information on the topic to its members, including a draft letter which can be sent to landlords asking for a postponement or cancelation of rent. Additional information available here, in French. - Following the introduction of a new lockdown from 30 October, the French Government has announced that it would financially incentivise landlords to cancel the rent due for November and possibly December if the lockdown is extended. The French Government decided to limit this scheme to November 2020 following the introduction of an extended solidarity fund (allowing all companies to apply for a one-off grant) for the month of December. This incentive will take the shape of a tax credit, with the state effectively covering 50% of the rent if the landlord accepts to cancel it. This measure will apply to companies of less than 250 employees. For bigger companies, the support will only cover a maximum of 2/3 of the rent due for November. - The French Government also introduced a rule whereby businesses that were forced to close – including cinemas – could not be penalised/fined for delays in the payment of energy bills during and two months after the period of closure. Same for the payment of rent. It remains to be seen if this rule applies to all businesses or only those with less than x employees. - It was announced in mid-January 2021 that all businesses with a monthly turnover of over €1m and more than 50 employees which have been required to close by the Government will benefit from a support fund specifically targeting fixed costs. The fund will cover maximum 70% of fixed costs for a total amount of maximum €3m per company from January to June 2021. This aid can be combined with the already existing solidarity fund. Details of this programme will be announced later in January or February 2021.
